Phone Investigation

Ms. Sun: Hello, how are you?

Investigator: Hello, greetings! Is this Organ Donation Office of Beijing Chaoyang District Red Cross Society?

Ms. Sun: Hi, greetings! This is Beijing Chaoyang District Red Cross Society Office.

Investigator: Hi, hello! So, this is the case. I want your help and would like to consult you for advice. I have a friend at Fengtai (District). He suffers from late stage liver cirrhosis, and needs a liver transplant. I would like to ask about the situation of your organ donations. Could you help?

Ms. Sun: In that case, regarding the organ donations, Beijing Red Cross Society did not open this business.

Investigator: This business hasn't been opened yet, right?

Ms. Sun: Correct. We only deal with body donation, no organ donation. You still must contact major hospitals for organ donation.

Investigator: Oh~ the major hospitals. Then for the hospitals in your Chaoyang District, whom should people contact (if they want to look for organs)?

Ms. Sun: We are not quite sure about this, because we don't have a direct contact relationship with the hospitals, due to the different nature of our work.

Investigator: Oh, then...

Ms. Sun: We only accept the work arrangements from Beijing Red Cross Society. What it arranges for us now are three corresponding hospitals, for body donation. So, there is neither such information nor document.

Investigator: So, three hospitals, which are they?

Ms. Sun: The three are, Capital Medical University...

Investigator: Which else?

Ms. Sun: Peking Union Medical College...

Investigator: Peking Union Medical College, which else?

Ms. Sun: The other one is Peking University Health Science Center.

Investigator: Oh.

Ms. Sun: Could you write down their phone numbers and consult them?

Investigator: Oh, here is the situation. Now my friend is at Fengtai District. We want to contact such a hospital (that has donated livers) by ourselves. We tried to contact Chao-Yang (Hospital) by ourselves. Do you have a contact number for Chao-Yang Hospital or the Armed Police General Hospital?

Ms. Sun: I really don't have it. We also search for it online, because we don't have any connection with them, and they don't belong to our system.

Investigator: Oh, then I just want to ask you. Our district's Beijing Red Cross Society's organ donation work hasn't started yet. When will it start?

Ms. Sun: It has been discussed and analyzed in the (Beijing) City for a long time. It may require a lot, a lot of coordination work, so we have always been paying attention to this issue. We have been doing body donation for many years. We have heard that it has been operating recently, including training the workers for organ donation. It might start soon.

Investigator: Oh, ok. Thank you!

Ms. Sun: Oh, you are welcome. Okay.

Investigator: How should I address you, please?

Ms. Sun: How to address me?

Investigator: Yeah, what's your last name?

Ms. Sun: Oh, Sun. My last name is Sun.

Investigator: Ok, Sun, thank you very much!

Ms. Sun: You are welcome, goodbye!
