Investigator: Um. So, what is the procedure to queue up for your hospital? Is it to register for your chief doctor. Or is it like some of the hospitals. They have a special, um, like China Western Hospital, they have a special administrative doctor who is in charge of registration.

Yi ShangHong: Yes, yes. We also have. (Investigator: which doctor?). For details, you can come by the hospital to inquire. Just come to ask about it, OK. (Investigator: Um?). It is not convenient to speak about it on the phone.

Investigator: Then this year you are doing all this type, right? All of them are this type?
