3. You take my advice, and you won't regret it!
4. You don't need to ask why, I don't know why either!
5. Director Wang Hongliang and Director Dong Jianhui are doing it.

Investigation Recording

Male doctor: Hello! Transplantation Department.

Investigator: Hello! The 303 Hospital of the People's Liberation Army, right? Is this Liver transplant department?

Male doctor: Ah, yes.

Investigator: Well, I'll tell what. I have someone in my family who needs a liver transplant. I wanted to ask...I called earlier...

Male doctor: This is what you need to do, ah, if you want to do a liver transplant, I suggest you go to the Second Affiliated Hospital of Guangxi Medical University and line up there. It's faster there. There are more liver sources available now, so the operation may be faster.

Investigator: Oh~

Male doctor: That is to say, right now, our hospital is doing very few...

Investigator: Ah.

Male doctor: The Second Affiliated Hospital of Guangxi Medical University is doing a lot now...

Investigator: Ah...

Male doctor: And they have many donors too.

Investigator: Ah.

Male doctor: You go to the Second Affiliated Hospital of Guangxi Medical University to sign up on their waiting list now. Ah, this is the fastest way to do surgery now, okay? It is the best choice now. You may not be able to make it on the waiting list at 303 Hospital now. There are too few donors now.

Investigator: Ah, donors are few, now? Not as many as before, right? Hello?

Male doctor: Now, the Second Affiliated Hospital of (Guangxi) Medical University has the most (donors available).

Investigator: Ah...

Male doctor: You take my advice, and you won't regret it!

Investigator: Well, my friend also told me before...my friend is also, is also in your department...

Male doctor: Mainly because, now, now, now the situation here has changed, now there are very few!

Investigator: Ah!

Male doctor: Do you understand what I mean by saying there aren't any now?

Investigator: Ah, really?

Male doctor: You still don't understand what I mean? That's right, ah.

Investigator: He also told me...

Male doctor: I can tell you, you can come to our hospital. If you go to the Second Affiliated Hospital (The Second Affiliated Hospital of Guangxi Medical University) first, then, if the Second Affiliated Hospital (The Second Affiliated Hospital of Guangxi Medical University) does not have a place for you to stay, you can come back to us here to ask again, okay?

Investigator: Ah.

Male doctor: Come to us here again, since you are in Nanning anyway, you might as well come and have a look at both hospitals, okay?

Investigator: Ah, okay, may I ask you, doctor, that Wang, Wang Hongliang is also doing liver transplants now, right? Although you are not doing many, Wang Hongliang is still doing it, right?

Male doctor: Yes, he is.

Investigator: And then that, that Director Dong Jianhui, he is also doing it, they are both doing it, aren't they?

Male doctor: Yes, yes, yes, they both can do it.

Investigator: Ah, OK, that friend of mine also recommended this to me, ah, that's good.

Male doctor: Okay, okay, let's stop here first.

Investigator: Wait, doctor, I want to ask, since he told me in such details about how good your hospital is, then I want to ask, why don't you do it any more? How come you are not as good as before, you are not doing as many as before?

Male doctor: You don't need to ask why, I don't know why either, um, OK, that's it.
