Investigation Recording:

Investigator: Hi, hello! You are the doctors' office of kidney transplant department, aren't you?

Doctor: What's up, what's up!

Investigator: I intend to take a family member to your hospital for a kidney transplant. We need to see an expert at the clinic for an evaluation first.

Doctor: Here is kidney transplant. Go ahead.

Investigator: Doctor, I'd like to know...

like to know how many surgeries your hospital can perform in a month currently? So that we will be assured of the skills.

Doctor: Last year, we did more than 200 surgeries.

Investigator: You haven't been affected by the pandemic this year, have you?

Doctor: Pandemic? We did 20 surgeries last month.

Investigator: Who is currently leading the surgical team?

Doctor: Our directors here are all very good, very good.

Investigator: I heard there's a Director Sun.

Doctor: He is the director of our department. He is available at the clinic Mondays, Monday afternoons.

Investigator: Then if I want to...

Doctor: You won't get details over the phone. I must go now; that's it.

Investigator: Okay, okay. Thank you. Goodbye.

Doctor: Eh, goodbye.
